First Generation

1. John McCRARY,<sup>1</sup> son of John (Or James) McCRARY, * [Our Scottish Immigrant Ancestor] and Martha , (Supposition), was born about 1735 and died on 5 Jan 1814 in Baldwin County, GA at age 79.

General Notes: John McCrary was born about 1735. He married Jane Greer, whose father was John Greer Sr. John appears to have been the first McCrary to settle in Duncan's Creek. In 1755, he appeared before the Governor of South Carolina to petition for land for himself and two persons in his family. This would have been his wife and first born child. John petitioned for an additional 150 acres on 7 October 1765 and another 100 acres on 2 December 1766. He purchased 300 acres from Daniel More on 2 August 1770 and 150 more on 17 July 1774 from John Coulter. As did the other McCrary's, he was a member of the Little River Regiment during the American Revolution. John sold his land in January 1787 and moved to Georgia. He purchased 50 acres in Hancock County, VA, next to Barley McCrary. In 1802 he was taxed in Hancock County for 6 slaves and 337 acres of land. In 1807 he is found in Baldwin County with 8 slaves and 202 acres of land. John died ca 1813 in Baldwin County, GA. In the Georgia Journal issue of 9 March 1814 is an advertisement that says: "Will be sold, on Friday the 22 of April next, at the plantation of John McCrary, deceased, the hoses, cattle, and hogs, blacksmith's tools, one wagon oand gear belonging to estate of said deceased. (Signed) Bartley McCrary.

JOHN McCRARY, Sr., served under Capt. Dillard. His wife Jane predeceased him, perhaps in South Carolina.

February 14, 1786 - January 16, 1787: JOHN McCRARY and his wife JANE, of Laurens District, sold to Charles Hutchings of same for 257 pounds sterling, 300 acres located on northside of Duncan's Creek, bounded all sides on vacant land when originally granted to Daniel Mote and recorded in Secretary State Office Book 3 BBB page 370, and from Daniel Mote to JOHN McCRARY 2 August 1770. Wit: James Montgomery, George Ross, ROBERT McCRARY (From Laurens Co, SC Deed Bk A, pp 78-80)

John McCrary, Sr., his four sons and daughter left South Carolina for Georgia at an unknown date, but somewhere between 1786 and 1788.

1788 JOHN McCRARY & FAMILY MOVED TO GEORGIA: In 1788 Georgia became a state. Between 1784 and 1820, thousands of Americans moved to Georgia. Many early settlers came from North and South Carolina and Virginia. Some came to Georgia directly from England and Scotland. Land was plentiful, cheap, and available in land lotteries. The JOHN McCRARY, SR. family from Laurens Co, SC joined in the influx. They qualified for drawings in the Georgia Land Lotteries by having served in the Revolutionary War.

September 15, 1836, Macon, Georgia Telegraph: Georgia, Crawford County} I do hereby certify that I was in the fight on the 3rd of June last, with the foot company, from Crawford County, commanded by Captain William A. Carr, a part of Parham's mounted volunteers, from said county, and a part of the Sumter Volunteers commanded by Captain ISAAC McCRARY. About 10 o'clock, the picket guard came up from the river and informed us that the Indians had made their appearance on the opposite bank of the Chattahoochee River, from which intelligence the men started out of the gate in disorder, when Major William M. Brown ordered to halt and form a line. CAPT. McCRARY immediately formed his men, and the detachment from Capt. Parham's company, and Capt. Wm. A. Carr then formed on them. As soon as this was done, Lieutenant George Robertson of Sumter County, proposed that Major William M. Brown should take the command of the whole, when a number responded to Lt. Robert's suggestion, and no one opposed. Major Brown replied, if was the wish of all the officers and men he would, and no one objected. Major Brown immediately assumed the command and arranged the men into three divisions. Major W.M. Brown then gave the command of the first division to CAPT. McCRARY, the second to Capt Wm. A. Carr, and the third to Lt. Joseph Bradford. Maj. Brown then ordered that no man fire a gun without his orders, and that by no means did he wish any man to break orders. He then ordered the men to march to the river, where the fight ensued; but before the men took their station, Maj. Brown ordered them to halt some forty or fifty yards from the margin of the river, until he should reconnoiter and ascertain the position of the enemy. This order was promptly obeyed, and the men marched up and formed for action, Capt. Carr on the right, and Capt. McCRARY on the left. In ten or fifteen minutes afterwards, Major Brown ordered a fire, which order was obeyed by all immediately; after the order to fire Maj. Brown ordered Capt. Carr to flank up the river, that being to the right, and Capt. MCCRARY to the left, or down the river. The firing continued in every direction from the enemy for some time but ultimately was heavier up the river on the right wing, where Capt. Carr had the command which caused me to proceed up the river to meet the enemy's fire and upon reaching my destination, I found Major William M. Brown there. Soon after this, our fellow soldier, Crossland, fell. When Major Brown exhorted the men to stand up to it the best they could; we had lost one good fellow, and only one, and that we had killed lots of Indians, and further observe that he (Maj. Brown) would go down and see how they came upon the left. Immediately Capt. Carr remarked, "Boys, we had better retreat to the house, the Indians are crossing above and below us, and if we do not we will be surrounded and massacred the whole of us, if we stay here." This Capt. Carr repeated two or three times. At this time, the firing had entirely ceased on the right, where Capt. Carr commanded; Capt. Carr and men had started to the house in quite a brisk walk, but at the same time the firing was briskly kept up on the left, where Maj. Brown was then acting in person, and for some considerable time after I reached Maj. Brown, for I do not believe the fight was much more than half ended when Capt. Carr left the ground. Some time after I reach Maj. Brown on the left, Major Brown ordered the picket guard to remain at their posts while he went to the house to see what Capt. Carr wanted with him; ordered the firing to cease till his return. I went with Maj. Brown to the house, where we found a number of Capt. Carr's men with the knapsacks and their blankets hung on and their guns shouldered in a travelling posture, and Capt. Carr standing at the door in the yard. With regard to the situation of the men, or some of them, on my arrival with Maj. Brown they were at the gate moving off, and Maj. Brown cursed them and ordered them to lay down their knapsacks and blankets and keep their places. Maj. Brown, as requested, went out into the yard to Cap Carr, but what conversation passed between them I know not, as I never went in hearing of them. While we were at the house, the Indians continued their fire until after we went back and some time afterwards, Capt. Carr remaining at the house. On Major Brown's return to the river, he ordered the men not to fire a gun, in order that the Indians might suppose that we were gone, and might come down to the river, when, in that event, we might make our shot tell; we remained at our station from Friday till Sunday morning, and much conversation took place concerning our fight, and I never heard any person pretend to deny that Maj. Brown commanded nor to controvert any fact which I have here certified to, until after I arrived home and some time afterwards. During the aforesaid fight, I saw Brown on the river bank encouraging the men to act bravely all the time, but never heard Carr issue an order or exhort the men to bravery and courage once. The foregoing certificate I gave at the request of Maj. Wm. M. Brown to use at his discretion. Given under my hand, 17th August 1835, ELISHA A. HARRIS.

Wednesday March 1, 1869: Petition of Susan H. Miller Adminstrix on the Estate of Daniel W. MILLER, late of said county deceased, showeth that there is now due and unpaid about $130.00 of the State and County tax for the year 1867 and 1868 against the Estate she represents and that she has no means of immediately paying the same except by the sale of the East half of Lot land # 72 in the 14th District of originally Muscogee, now Taylor containing one hundred one and a fourth acres, except 4 acres including the Old Baptist Meeting House at present occupied by Polly Hortman. That WILEY McCRARY has offered two dollars per acre for said half lot which your Petitioner has agreed to accept as the best arrangement she can make to raise money for said Taxes, which are pressing against her subject to be increased by further cost and expense from delay. As her legal adviser, I have pointed out to the Admintrix the above course. The urgency of the case demands and justified the exercise of such sound discretion. Stephen F. Miller, Attorney at Law
